

BEDFORDSHIRE SMALLBORE SHOOTING ASSOCIATION COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIPS

TO BE HELD ON SUNDAY JUNE 12 2022 AT THE BEDFORD RANGE

CLOSING DATE FOR LONG-RANGE ENTRIES
SATURDAY MAY 28 2022

Following the loss of Thorn Range and limited capacity at the Bedford Range the format of the competition has been revised, the Short-Range Championship will be shot on a postal basis.

The Long Range Championship (50m and 100yds) will continue as a shoulder-to-shoulder shoot.

These Championships are open only to those who reside in the County of Bedfordshire.

Will Club Secretaries please do their utmost to publicise these Championships and encourage all their members to participate remembering that the competitions are by class and so there is a chance for everyone.

The County Champion competition will remain the same, with the Chris Fryer Memorial Trophy being awarded to the County Champion who will be the person with the highest aggregate over the Short- and Long-Range Championships. The County Champion will also receive a Gold Wire Badge.

CHAMPION OF CHAMPIONS.

There will be a Champion of Champions competition at Bisley as usual on the Malcolm Cooper Range and counties are invited to send one person to complete in this. The BSSA Committee has decided to invite the winner of the Long-Range Championship to represent Bedfordshire in this competition on the last Sunday of Bisley week. If the winner is unable to go to Bisley then the runner-up will be invited.

---

If members are not shooting for any reason but are willing to come and help as range officers/scorers/refreshment helpers we will be very pleased to hear from them.
